

Sectors And Areas Which Are Suitable For Agricultural Investment In Konya

NAME OF THE SECTOR	DESCRIPTION
Dairy Cattle Business	Existence of suitable pastures and seed plant production areas, existence of land which is sufficiently large for stockbreeding and the fact that there are no problems of processing and marketing provide an advantage for the sector.
Beef Cattle Raising	Existence of suitable pastures and seed plant production areas, existence of land which is sufficiently large for stockbreeding and the fact that there are no problems of processing and marketing provide an advantage for the sector.
Sheep and Goat Raising	Akkaraman sheep breed is exclusive to the region and the existence of large pastures is important in terms of sheep and goat raising
Egg Poultry	There are modern poultry-houses and businesses in the province and the province has a major share in the egg market. In addition, there is also an Egg Producers Cooperative in the province.
Broiler Raising	Although it is easy to obtain feed and the necessary feed raw material, there is no broiler raising and their slaughterhouses in the province.
Meat and Dairy Products Processing Plant	Production of animal products such as meat and milk is carried out intensively and there are no problems in consumption and marketing.
Food Businesses	Population being high in the province, ease of transportation to the western and southern regions and intense production of agricultural products makes the sector attractive.
Viticulture	Konya has a major viticulture potential. Local types with high commercial value, such as Kecimen, Goguzumu and Hesebali are grown in Hadim, Bozkir and Güneysinir counties.
Field Crops Cultivation	There is large land, suitable for cultivation, in the province.
Orcharding	The province has climate and soil structure which allow growing fruits especially such as cherry and apple and there are not any problems in the processing and marketing sectors.
Organic Farming	There are unpolluted natural growing areas in the province and demand for organic products is increasing continuously in the province.
Vegetable Farming	The province ranks first especially in carrot production and Kasinhani carrot is preferred for export for its taste and flavor.
Seed growing	142 Seed growing companies are active in the province and it ranks near the top in Turkey with notably potatoes and hybrid sunflowers, feed plants and safflower seed.
Agriculture Pesticide production	There are 2 plant protection products producers which have been active for many years in the province.
Agricultural Tools and Machines Production	There are 160 businesses which manufacture agricultural tools and machines in our province.